The Pub and its Facilities

The Red Lion is located on the busy main coastal road between Skegness and Mablethorpe and is a single room pub with a central bar servery which serves the public bar and dining area, all of which is in very good decorative condition. A feature open fireplace with a real fire is an attraction to locals and visitors alike. There is also a large, good quality catering kitchen, a side room and outside there is a large beer garden, car park for c.12 vehicles and a grassed area which has potential to be used for caravans or campervans. The outbuilding in the car park previously housed a community shop but has more recently been used as an office and storage area.

The Neighbourhood

The beautiful village of Mumby is situated on the busy A52 which goes through to the busy holiday resorts of Mablethorpe, Sandilands, Ingoldmells, Skegness, with one of the 'jewels in the crown' of the east coast, Anderby Creek, only 3 miles away. There is so much to do in the area, which is why it is so popular; horse riding, cycling hiking, golf, museum visits and then there's the local Five Sailed Windmill or Alford Manor and Museum. All this and only a 35 minute drive from the historic city of Lincoln.

Mumby itself, centred around the 14th century village church, has a population of 500 and has a real community spirit. Facilities, schools, Dr's surgeries, shops etc all available in nearby towns and villages.

Living Accommodation

Above the pub the domestic accommodation comprising of two bedrooms, lounge, kitchen and bathroom, all in good decorative order.

Qualities which will make this pub thrive

Being a great operator with the skills to attract locals and create a good community environment and integrate well into the local area. You will need to be able to drive business through excellent standards and service with good catering experience and have good marketing and social media skills. Experience in the licensed trade, especially with cask ales, is preferred but not essential.
